

18 As she walked along the stream, she heard a soft rustling in the bushes.
Out popped a small, fluffy fox kit. The kit looked just as surprised to see Lily as she was to see it. The fox kit tilted its head and let out a soft yip, as if asking what she was doing there. Lily smiled and gently patted the ground next to her.

19

20 "Hello there," she said softly. "I'm Lily. I'm a bit lost. Do you know the way back to the village?"

22 The fox kit seemed to understand and wagged its tail. It turned and started to walk along the stream, looking back at Lily as if to say, " Follow me." Lily hesitated for a moment but decided to trust the little creature. She followed the fox kit, feeling a bit more hopeful.

24 As they walked, the fox kit led her through the forest, taking turns and crossing small bridges over the stream
